

Todd Battley

Chief Strategy Officer

Todd Battley is Executive Vice President and Chief Strategy Officer at AECOM (NYSE:ACM), the world's trusted infrastructure consulting firm, delivering professional services throughout the project lifecycle — from planning, design and engineering to program and construction management.

In this role, Mr. Battley drives AECOM's growth strategy by bringing the best of the company's enterprise capability to key clients. His areas of responsibility include digital transformation and ensuring our people have access to the digital tools and systems that will support innovation and deliver client service excellence.

Previously, Mr. Battley was the Chief Executive of AECOM Australia New Zealand where he oversaw a sustained period of revenue and margin growth, while embracing workplace flexibility and the latest digital engineering practices.

Mr. Battley joined AECOM in 1996 after graduating as a civil engineer from James Cook University in Queensland, Australia. Mr. Battley has led the way in improving gender diversity across the infrastructure sector through his participation in Consult Australia's Male Champions of Change, AECOM's commitment to closing the gender pay gap and as an ambassador for Australia's Workplace Gender Equality Agency.

AECOM is the world's trusted infrastructure consulting firm, delivering professional services throughout the project lifecycle – from advisory, planning, design and engineering to program and construction management. On projects spanning transportation, buildings, water, new energy and the environment, our public- and private-sector clients trust us to solve their most complex challenges. Our teams are driven by a common purpose to deliver a better world through our unrivaled technical and digital expertise, a culture of equity, diversity and inclusion, and a commitment to environmental, social and governance priorities. AECOM is a Fortune 500 firm and its Professional Services business had revenue of $13.1 billion in fiscal year 2022.
